

To be eligible for the Manatee Hundred Club Scholarship, you must:

1. Be enrolled in a degree program at State College of Florida.
2. Be a Manatee County law enforcement officer, or the family member of a Manatee County law enforcement officer.
3. Have a minimum 2.0 cumulative grade point average.
4. Be a U.S. citizen, and a Florida resident eligible for in-state tuition.
5. Demonstrate financial need in the SCF Foundation general scholarship application. Completing the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) is encouraged but not required.
6. Be enrolled in at least six (6) credit hours in the academic year for which you are applying.

To apply for the Manatee Hundred Club Scholarship:

1. Complete the SCF Foundation general scholarship application online: Scholarships – State College of Florida Foundation.
2. For the 2025-26 academic year, the application will be open from February 1, 2025 – April 15, 2025.
3. Once you have completed and submitted your application, if you meet the requirements above, you will be prompted to answer additional questions to qualify for the Manatee Hundred Club Scholarship, including:
 - a. Are you a Manatee County law enforcement officer? If so, please name the law enforcement entity you work for.
 - b. Are you a family member of a Manatee County law enforcement officer? If so, what is the name of the law enforcement officer, and which law enforcement entity do they work for?
4. The SCF Foundation will begin sending award offers for academic year 2025-26 as early as July 2025.
5. All communications regarding scholarships, including scholarship award offers, will come through your SCF student email address. Please be sure to check your email at least twice a week! If you are offered a scholarship, you must respond within two weeks of the notification date, or the scholarship will be offered to another student.
6. By applying for a scholarship from the SCF Foundation, you may also be considered for additional scholarship opportunities, too! Because scholarship funds may become available anytime during the academic year, keep checking your email regularly.
